

Open Records Course

GACP is excited to host a $25 Open Records Course

In this session, we will offer a broad overview of the Georgia Open Records Act and its practical application for law enforcement agencies including relevant statutory exemptions. This session will be a total of three hours with a two hour informational session followed by a one hour interactive workshop.

INSTRUCTORS

Cheryl Savage,
Open Records Manager, GBI

Cheryl Savage is the manager for the Office of Privacy and Compliance at the GBI. She has been with GBI for 30 years and has worked in 3 different divisions.

In 2013, she became the Criminal History/Identification Services program manager, where she served until her most recent appointment. During this time, she led her team in developing the first GCIC Computer-Based Training (CBT) program, providing online training to over 50,000 criminal justice employees.

Lisa Jones ,
Police Legal Advisor, Gwinnett County Government

Lisa Jones is an experienced criminal attorney with a demonstrated history of working in the government administration industry.

She is the Police Legal Advisor for the Gwinnett County Government. Skilled in Trials, Appeals, Criminal Law, Hearings, and Criminal Justice. Jones graduated from University of Kansas School of Law as Juris Doctor 1993.

LIMITED SEATS AVAILABLE
(40 MAX)

REGISTER TODAY!

May 12, 2026 from 9 AM - 12 PM

280 Technology Parkway,
Peachtree Corners, GA 30092